Hey Libby users! We have some exciting news for you!

The Wolcott Community Public Library will be joining the Statewide OverDrive Consortium called Indiana Digital Library, which is slated to launch March 1st, 2022.

So what does this mean for you? It means you will have a much larger collection of digital titles to choose from! The Indiana Digital Library will provide access to e-books, audiobooks, and digital magazines from over 190 Indiana libraries.

Need some more info? Head to our website!

AFTER INDIANA DIGITAL GOES LIVE: Log in to your app again, using the same information you use now. You should be good to go! Your current borrows and holds should transfer over to the new consortium.
