MEET AMANDA!

Hello! My name is Amanda Rinehart, and I started this past May as the new Program Director at the library. I live in Chalmers with my husband, four kids, and our turtle. I'm extremely excited to be working here and to get the chance to meet all of our lovely patrons. Our whole family loves to read, so I feel right at home with all these books! I'm excited for our programming and the chance to foster a love for reading in others.
